

Atlantic Council

Councilors Program

The Atlantic Council community believes that by working together we can, and should, secure a better global future. Succeeding in our mission requires the hard work of building consensus, including rather than excluding partners, while also broadening awareness of our mission's importance among the public and preparing a new generation of leaders to take up the mantle of fostering a better global future. If you share a commitment to our mission, please join us.

Washington Councilor ($5,000)

- One pass to the Distinguished Leadership Awards in Washington, DC, or the Global Citizen Awards in New York.
- One invitation to two off-the-record roundtables in Washington, DC, and New York, reserved exclusively for Councilor members, featuring Atlantic Council experts and other distinguished guests on global opportunities and challenges.
- One invitation to an annual State of the Council luncheon, featuring remarks and an off-the-record discussion with Atlantic Council President and CEO, Frederick Kempe.
- One invitation to an annual membership reception and happy hour in Washington, DC.
- Invitations to annual member-hosted gatherings, featuring salon-style, off-the-record discussions on a timely topic or issue.
- Invitations to monthly member-only events and briefing calls on the latest and rapidly developing global issues.
- Copies of the Atlantic Council's books, reports, and publications (upon request).
- Electronic subscription to a weekly Inflection Points newsletter from Atlantic Council President and CEO, Frederick Kempe, featuring analysis and thought-leadership on current trends in global affairs.
- Electronic subscription to Members Priority Access, a weekly newsletter including a digest of invitations to upcoming public and private events.
- Acknowledgment on the Atlantic Council website and on the Donor Honor Roll in the Atlantic Council's annual report.

For more information, please contact Carrie Kolasky, Senior Vice President of Development, at ckolasky@atlanticcouncil.org or (202) 778-4960.